PUBLIC SALE.

ON Friday, the 19th. October, we will sell to the highest bidder, on the premises, the one mile south of Ridgeway, on R. & G. R. R. in Warren county, the residence of the late Dr. H. L. Plummer.

PLANTATION,

The tract will be divided—one, including houses, contains 600 acres, well adapted to the growth of wheat, tobacco, corn &c., with an adequate quantity of wood land, original growth, and a larger proportion of highly improved lot land than any other farm in the county. Also, a fair proportion of bottom land on a creek, running entirely through the tract.

THE DWELLING

is a good two-story house, with 7 rooms; good cabins, with stone chimneys; excellent frame barns, good granary, stables, &c. Also, a good Orchard of Choice Winter Fruit.

The other tract, on the same road, contains 350 acres, 50 of which is good bottom land, on Fishing Creek, and sufficient wood for fence and fuel, but no house except a barn. Both tracts are in good condition. Dr. Plummer never made less than 17 bushels wheat per acre on these farms—frequently more.

The locality is as healthy and the neighborhood as refined as any in the State. It is in every respect desirable, and it is seldom such a place is offered at auction. One of the subscribers resides on the place, and will show it to any one wishing to see it. Possession will be given 1st. January, but the privilege of seeding wheat granted immediately.

We Will Also Sell

12 head fat Cattle, 20 head Sheep, 50 barrels old Corn, a good Wheat Thrasher, capable of getting out 300 bushels Wheat per day;

Two Wheat Reapers,

SOME EXCELLENT SEED WHEAT, AND OTHER ARTICLES.

TERMS—For land, one-fifth cash; the balance in equal payments of 1 and 2 years, bonds well secured, with interest from date—title held until land is paid for. Other property, cash. Sale to commence at 11 o'clock.

K. PLUMMER,
R. T. ARRINGTON, } Executors.

VALUABLE PROPERTY FOR SALE,

ON Monday the 5th. day of November next, on the Premises at Oaks, Orange County, I will sell to the highest bidder the Farm and Residence of the late Doctor O. F. Long. There are about 160 acres of the Land. The House is nearly new, comfortable and commodious, with a good well and garden, and all necessary out-buildings, and all in good order. It is a good location for a Physician or Teacher, and in an excellent neighborhood.

The terms of sale will be one, two and three years credit, with interest after six months, with bond and good security, and title reserved till purchase money is paid. A good title will be made.

FOR SALE.

ONE THOUSAND ACRES of valuable land, lying on Neuse River, in the County of Johnson, and on both sides of the N. C. R. Road, between Smithfield and Stallings' Depots.

I prefer selling the whole tract to one man, but will cut it into hundred acre tracts to suit purchasers. To a company of men wishing small farms and pleasant healthy locations, it holds out good inducements, as I will sell on favourable terms. Persons wishing to examine the land, and coming by Rail Road, can be put off the Cars at Vinson's Mill, where they will always find me.

I will also sell a TWENTY HORSE power SAW MILL, in good working order, with teams, waggons, and all appurtenances.

EXCHANGE OF N. C. BONDS FOR STOCKS.

STATE OF NORTH CAROLINA,
TREASURY DEPARTMENT.
Raleigh, September 27th. 1866.

The Public are reminded that, in pursuance of an Ordinance of the late Convention, sealed proposals will be received by the undersigned, until 12 M., on the first day of November next, for the exchange of the principal of bonds issued by the State before the 20th. May 1861, for the Stocks held by the State in the various Rail Roads and other Companies, of which the following are the principal:

North Carolina R. R. Co.	$3,000,000,
Raleigh & Gaston R. R. Co.	682,500,
Atlantic & N. C. R. R.	$1,066,000,
Western N. C. R. R. Co.	$1,418,000,
Albemarle and Chesapeake Canal Co.	$ 350,000,

No bid less than par will be entertained. Any premiums offered may be applied to payment of the Interest due on the bonds offered in exchange. Bids will be opened in the presence of the Governor and Comptroller, and those will be accepted most advantageous to the State.

Purchasers of preferred stock will not obtain rights greater than holders of stocks not preferred.

In consequence of the bonds and liens, held by the State on various Rail Road Companies, having been in part executed during the late war, I have concluded not to offer them for exchange until the reception of special instructions from the General Assembly.

I have deferred the time of opening bids in order that parties interested might have opportunity of examining the reports of the various Companies for the present year, which no doubt can be obtained from the proper officers of the Companies.

Public Treasurer.

INFALLIBLE YEAST POWDERS.

Scientific men, who thoroughly understand the subject, concur with great unanimity in saying that nothing exerts such a deleterious influence against health as bad bread. The remedy is at hand in SIMPSON'S INFALLIBLE YEAST POWDERS, the value of which is thus certified:

RALEIGH, Aug. 24, 1866.

I have tested the Yeast Powders you manufacture and can recommend them as vastly superior to any other ever used by me. In addition to the lightness and sweetness of the bread, the powders are economical, as one-third the lard usually required will answer in the making of either loaf bread or biscuit. For pastries and cakes they are excellent.

VIRGINIA A. ORR.

The price of these powders per package is 25 cts. or 75 cts. per pound. To be had at Wm. Simpson's Confectionary Store, Fayetteville Street, Raleigh, N. C.

RALEIGH, Aug. 23, 1866.

This is to certify that I have used Mr. Simpson's Yeast Powders and find them to be superior to any I have ever used. After trying them once no house keeper will be satisfied without them.

MRS. S. D. HARRISON.

FOR THE CONSTITUTION OF THE UNITED STATES, AS IT IS, AND THE UNION AS IT WAS.
NO FURTHER AMENDMENTS.

FOR GOVERNOR,
JONATHAN WORTH,
OF RANDOLPH.

Election Thursday, October 18th.

Gov. Worth and his Administration.

Gov. Worth's administration has been so quiet and unpretending, and he is himself so unambitious of display, that our people do not fully know the extent of their obligations to him. That they have great confidence in his integrity, fairness and sound, practical judgment, we know, and that they will express that confidence at the polls on Thursday next, we are sure, but still they cannot generally realize, because no parade has been made over it, how indefatigably and successfully, so far as circumstances would admit, he has guarded their interests. More brilliant men have occupied the gubernatorial chair of North Carolina, but none of more industrious habits, more devoted to the public welfare or more conscientious and inflexible in the discharge of duty. It is fortunate for the State that, under the anomalous and complicated condition of things that has existed since the resumption of civil government, we should have had just such a Governor. He has been emphatically the right man in the right place.

We have been several times challenged to specify what Gov. Worth has done for the people, in his Executive capacity. It is not necessary, in fixing the usefulness of a public officer, to point to prominent or notorious acts of service. Such have been our peculiar embarrassments as a people, and such has been his circumscribed field of labor as a Chief Magistrate, that no opportunity for such acts has presented itself. So far as he could, however,—so far as any man could, and much farther than most men could,—he has done the State and people valuable service. In a modest and unostentatious way he has accomplished much and signal good.

Through Gov. Worth's official and personal influence at Washington, he has obtained pardons for hundreds of our fellow-citizens, who, up to the time of his accession to office, had failed to procure them, either by having been placed under the ban by the Provisional government or for other reasons. There are now but few unpardoned men in the State, and in cases where applications have proven futile, it has been because some controlling consideration (which we neither understand nor shall criticize) prevailed with the President over his earnest and active recommendation.

It was through Gov. Worth's provident agency and quiet, but diligent, efforts, that the State is now in possession of the large amount of land scrip donated by Congress in 1862 to be converted into a fund for the establishment of agricultural schools. We are not aware that any other Southern State has realized the benefits of the act.

Few men, outside of those immediately cognizant of the facts, are aware of the patient and unwearied investigation which Gov. Worth has bestowed upon the diversified and intricate matters, great or small, that have been referred to him from every part of the State.—This has involved an amount of labor that would have appalled any man but one determined to get, in the shortest way, at the points of truth and impartial justice involved. His correspondence with the military authorities has been voluminous and constant, requiring thought, discretion, tact and a thorough knowledge of the law and the theory of the government. It has often been perplexing and delicate; but it has been conducted with a success that has prevented collision of authority, or other unpleasant consequences. We hazard nothing in saying, if that correspondence should ever be published, it will make an exhibit for Gov. Worth that will commend him warmly to the regard of the people, whose unfortunate condition has been the theme of many manly and touching appeals from his voice and pen, and whose character, rights and interests he has maintained with a bold and steady hand.

Gov. Worth will never do anything to compromise the good name of North Carolina. In our federal relations, he plants himself on the policy of Andrew Johnson and in utter hostility to the Howard amendment. He will not dishonor the manhood of the State by inviting, or voluntarily accepting, terms of degradation and ruin. If they are to come, he and his people, guiltless of the catastrophe, will bear it with the serenity and dignity arising from the consciousness of having done all they could to avert it.

Fellow citizens! You owe it to yourselves and to the country to endorse, in the most emphatic manner, on Thursday next, a faithful public servant, whose sole aim and ambition have been to protect and advance your interests. Let every man consider himself individually and specially bound to go to the polls to do this act of common justice!

TO POSTMASTERS AND NEWSPAPER BORROWERS.—We have complaints from our subscribers, that they do not get their papers. We dare not say that mistakes never occur in this office, but we doubt it any office in the State has a superior Clerk, one more attentive, than our's. We therefore do our best. We are inclined to think that sometimes our subscribers' papers are delivered to other persons by mistake, or loaned to others, so that some of them do not get them.—We beg to call the attention of Postmasters to this matter, most of whom, if not all, are disposed to be obliging. We are obliged to our friends that inform us, when their paper fails to come to hand.

The Past and the Future.

The history of ultra-abolitionism in this country is not yet written up. Whether it has yet even attained its culminating point is doubtful. The world may yet be astounded at its rigor, its demoralization, its transcendent malice, its recklessness of law, of humanity and of religion.

Conceived and born and cradled in infidelity, it has slowly but surely infused its virus into the Church of Christ, the schools of learning, the marts of business, the courts of justice, the legislative halls, the offices of honor and profit, into the National councils, the executive and judicial departments of the government, subordinating them to its unholy purposes, mixing itself up with every phase of politics, to gain the greater ascendancy, and it now seeks to invade the sanctity of the Constitution itself. To force its way into all classes, but especially among the masses, it has not hesitated to assume all shapes, —putting on the garb of extraordinary piety, assuming to be a leader and instructor in ethics, a pattern of philanthropy, the expounder of true philosophy, a teacher in politics and Constitutional lore, and then, as it was wont, putting religion, morals, humanity, laws and Constitution at defiance, forcing the nation into scenes of blood and carnage, arraying brother against brother and friend against friend, filling the land with rapine, murder, debauchery, hate and revenge, and only pleading for peace to take time to breathe, to make further inroads upon the quiet and happiness and life of the nation.

Such is a brief but faint description of the history and progress of this demon spirit, which is again ready to drench the land in blood and to destroy, in its demoniacal rage, the last vestige of American liberty.

The strides of this bloody but heartless Juggernaut have been so rapid and so astounding, that the wise, the patriotic and true statesmen of the country have almost entirely shrunk away from its encounter, and have committed the destinies of the Republic to the control of demagogues and political charlatans, who are ready to bury out of sight the fair fabric of our fathers, consecrated by their blood and toils, to elevate the God-cursed sons of Ham, not simply to a level with the white race, but above it.—And all for what? Is it to elevate man? To glorify and enshrine the Republic over all nations? Is it to root out and destroy Democracy that the so-called Republican party seeks to become more democratic—to go a bow-shot beyond what the wildest dreamers of progressive Democracy ever imagined? Or, rather, is all this expenditure of a fancied, frenzied philanthropy the shortest road to the obliteration of all real liberty in the South, and the enthronement of the Puritan over the Cavalier? If God wills, be it so. But the triumph of ultra-abolitionism will be the grave of American liberty and of this proud Republic.

Next Thursday--Howard Amendment.

The election comes off next Thursday. Remember that Gov. Worth is the representative National Union candidate in the State. Let no trivial circumstance prevent a full vote. It is important that the State should express its opinion fully upon the merits of the Constitutional (Howard) amendment, and this only can be done by voting for Gov. Worth. Those who throw away their votes, either upon Gen. Dockery or any one else, will be regarded as endorsing the Howard amendment on its merits.—There are not, perhaps, twenty men in the State, of ordinary intelligence, who believe that that amendment is a just, safe or proper one under the circumstances, yet many, strange to say, will vote for it and accept it as "the best we can get."

We have heretofore stated that the South is not authorized, from anything that is tangible, to regard the Howard amendment as a proposition from Congress as a necessary condition of reconciliation. The rejection of the resolution proposing to make it so, by Congress, immediately after the passage of the amendment, is conclusive on this point. Should Congress, by any subsequent action, make it so, it will then be time enough to consider it under that aspect. As now presented to us, it must be judged of upon its merits, and its merits alone. Hence, in the selection of members of the Legislature, our duty demands that we vote for no man who gives doubtful utterances upon that subject.

Something New.

We learn that information has been communicated to the State Department, at Washington, that, in different localities in the South, schemes are on foot to induce the colored people to emigrate, under the auspices of those connected with these schemes, to some foreign country, and especially to Peru, with pledges of bettering their condition. The facts have, we learn, been brought to the attention of the Governors of the Southern States, with the view of discouraging any such movement.

The whole scheme, if there be such a thing, is perfectly new to us in North Carolina, and we have heard nothing of it in other States.—The universal feeling in the South is, so far as we know, a desire that the colored population should remain where they are, provided they will be content with the enjoyment of civil rights, to labor for fair and just compensation, to aid the Southern people to improve the material condition of both races in the country. If, however, they are not disposed to work to this end, and yet are clamorous about social and political rights, there is one country where the whites of the South would advise them to emigrate, and that is to New England. As to Peru, or any foreign country, except Africa, we presume no one of common sense, or common humanity, would propose their emigration. If they were all, however, comfortably domiciled and doing well to-day in their native home, Africa, we judge it would occasion much pleasure in the South to hear of it.

There is a plantation in Georgia that will yield a bale of cotton to the acre, which has always been considered worth $25,000, now offered for $6000 and nobody is willing to buy.

Correspondence of the Sentinel.

CHARLOTTE, N. C., Oct. 12, 1866.

MESSRS. EDITORS:—The Synod of the Presbyterian Church in North Carolina is in session in this place. It convened on Wednesday night, and was organized by the election of Rev. R. H. Chapman, D. D., of Hendersonville, as Moderater.

Rev. A. G. Hughes, of Haw Fields, preached the opening sermon, from the text "Lord, I believe; help Thou mine unbelief."

There are about one hundred delegates in attendance.

In 1836, a division of the Presbyterian Church in the United States occurred, growing out of the doctrine of the Atonement. The two branches took the name of Old School and New School. The North Carolina Presbyterians adhered almost unanimously to the Old School.

The war gave rise to another division of both branches, into sub-divisions: Old School, North, and New School, North, and Old School, North, and Old School, South. Since this, the Old School, South, and the New School, South, have united.

In North Carolina the strength of the Presbyterian Church is about: Ministers 112, Churches 191, Communicants about 17,000.

The denomination has a number of periodicals in different States, and a book publishing house in Richmond.

A history of the Presbyterian Church in North Carolina is being prepared by Rev. Mr. Doll, of Yanceyville, which, in some points, will be interesting outside of the denomination proper.

THE CITY OF CHARLOTTE—ITS CHURCHES.

Charlotte has a population of about ——, and is the centre of a good section of country. It is cheering to a North Carolinian to fall upon such a busy town as this. It relieves the sadness of our depressed old State. All is life and motion in Charlotte.

The church edifices of Charlotte would be an ornament to a town of ten times the size. They are built with an eye to convenience and comfort, as well as appearance.

The members of the 14th N. C. Regiment will be glad to hear from their former Chaplain, Rev. Mr. Power. He is here in fine health and vigor. He is a member of the South Carolina Conference, and is stationed at the Charlotte Methodist Church, and fills his post with much acceptance to the people, and exhibits the devotion and zeal he gave in the army.

I was making my way to Early's camp, one Sabbath morning, in "The Valley;" and, being rather late, I asked a soldier whom I saw, if he thought I would get to camp in time to attend Mr. Power's service. "Well," said the soldier, glancing up at the sun, "I dont know whether you will hear him at eleven o'clock; but if you stay any time you will be sure to hear him, for he preaches most all the time."

WOOLEN FABRICS.

There is, in this city, a Woolen Factory of dimensions and a character that are unknown to many of our people, and only serves as another illustration of a fact, alluded to in a former letter to you, and that is, that we know far too little of ourselves here in North Carolina.

The Rock Island Manufacturing Company has long been known, as a company that made woolen goods in a general way. The machinery of this factory is busily at work in Charlotte. It runs 2,500 spindles, turns out 2,500 yards of cloth per week, consumes 3,000 lbs. of wool per week, or from 120,000 to 160,000 per annum; it has six sets of cards and seven spinning cranes. The machinery is driven by a sixty horse power engine.

This factory uses the "Harrison Boiler," of one hundred horse power. The peculiarity of the "Harrison Boiler" consists in the fact that the water is made to pass though a series of globes, holding about one gallon each, and thus presenting to the fire the largest amount of surface. Consequently, steam can be raised in as little time as would be taken up in boiling an ordinary tea kettle. This boiler has 1,064 such globes. Gen. Young is agent for this boiler.

About 80 hands are employed in the Rock Island factory.

But the best item of the whole thing is the fact that this company is turning out the best article of cloths and cassimeres, equal to the best that is brought here from the North. In proof of this I send you a sample of what they are making now, beaver cloth for overcoats and cassimere for pants, etc.

There ought not to be coat or pants worn in N. C., made of imported cloth.

The company consists of Gen. J. A. Young, John Wilkes, M. L. Wriston and Jas. Earnshaw, who say they are determined that no cloth shall be made in America superior to theirs.

MANASSAS GAP RAIL ROAD.

The last of the rolling stock of the Manassas Gap Rail Road has been removed from North Carolina to the old road in Va.

It was sad to see it go. What events have occurred since it first appeared in North Carolina! How many a youth has fallen upon the old Manassas track, and the word Manassas has become one of the biggest words in our history.

The M. G. R. R. train passed Raleigh on its way to Portsmouth, there to be floated to Alexandria. Joy to the people to whom it belongs!

Yours,
ITINERANT.

A Soldier's Estimate of Gen. Butler.

Gen'l James B. Steedman made a speech at Toledo, Oct. 1, and in the course of his remarks thus alluded to our esteemed fellow-citizen, General B. F. Butler:

"I know that distinguished Massachusetts General, Benjamin F. Butler, (laughter,) says he is going to march from Massachusetts to Washington with his militia. Well, now, he didn't hurt anybody during the war, and I have no idea he will hurt anybody now. (Laughter.) If he marches, and there is any fighting going on, I warrant you he will march in the rear of his column. (Laughter.) I have searched that gentleman's military record, in vain, to find where he led a column. He never led it anywhere. Perhaps he thinks as he didn't make any reputation in the last war, it is necessary for him to get up another one, in order to redeem himself. (Laughter.) No doubt Gen. Butler had a good many fierce people to deal with during the war; and no doubt he was provoked a good deal during his administration at New Orleans, and goaded to say a great many things that do not look well on paper. I do not like to comment on anything done by a Union General, but I am bound to say that, throughout the war, that General was remarkable only for his severity to women and children. (Cries of "Spoons.") He was very fierce to the defenceless people. That requires no courage. People who were within our lines, and whose protectors were gone—he was very harsh to them. It is true their protectors had no right to go, and they deserved, perhaps, all they got; but no brave man would take an advantage of that kind against women and children, and General Butler is the only man who ever did it."

Mr. Green sued a lady for breach of promise. Her friends offered to settle it for two hundred dollars. "What!" cried Green, "two hundred dollars for ruined hopes, a shattered mind, a blasted life and a bleeding heart! Two hundred dollars for all this! Never! never! never! Make it three hundred and it is a bargain!"

[From the New York World.]

Impeachment of President Johnson.

[Commenting on Butler's scheme of impeaching the President, by which the President is to be declared suspended from his office during his "trial," the World argues:]

This ingenious fallacy rests upon an assumption which a little scrutiny will easily explode. The assumption is, that an officer under impeachment stands in the same relation to the tribunal appointed to try him that an ordinary criminal does to an ordinary court. Because a court of justice never tries a criminal unless it has custody of his person, it is inferred that the same rule holds in the trial of an impeached officer by the Senate. The analogy fails in consequence of a total difference in the liability of the persons accused. The Constitution declares that "judgment in cases of impeachment shall not extend further than removal from office" and disqualification to hold any future office. It is not necessary for the Senate to have the custody of the accused in order to inflict this punishment. But an ordinary criminal, on trial for theft, murder or other crime, is liable to be punished by positive inflictions on his person. It would be an idle folly to go through the form of passing a sentence of death or imprisonment if the culprit was beyond the reach of the officers of the law. A person impeached of a crime otherwise punishable than by deposition from office, is also liable to the ordinary penalties of the same crime by the judgment of the ordinary tribunals. The impeachment, having no other aim than simply to vacate his office, can accomplish its purpose just as well without the custody of his person as with. He is summoned to appear on the same principle that the defendant in a civil suit is summoned to appear. If he stays away, he only waives his opportunity of defence. An officer summoned to appear and answer to an impeachment has these three alternatives, with perfect freedom of selection, namely: he may appear in person; he may appear only by counsel; or he may decline to appear at all. In the case of Justice Samuel Chase, of the United States Supreme Court, impeached in 1805, the Senate, after organizing as a high court of impeachment, adopted the following as one of its rules of proceeding:

"10. The person impeached shall then be called to appear and answer the articles of impeachment exhibited against him. If he appears, OR ANY PERSON FOR HIM, the appearance shall be recorded, stating particularly if by himself, OR IF BY AGENT OR ATTORNEY; naming the person appearing, and the capacity in which he appears. If he does not appear, either personally, OR BY AGENT OR ATTORNEY, the same shall be recorded."

It is clear, from this weighty and authoritative precedent, that General Butler is wholly wrong in his law. Instead of the President being taken into custody and imprisoned, it depends on his voluntary choice whether he will appear before the court at all. If he appears, he is just as free to appear by attorney as in person.

Judge Story, in his commentaries on the Constitution, describes at length the formalities observed in trials for impeachment. We cite the following passage as corroborating the inferences we have drawn from the rule of the court in Judge Chase's case: "If he" [the person impeached] "does not appear, in person or by attorney, his default is recorded, AND THE SENATE MAY PROCEED EX PARTE TO THE TRIAL OF THE IMPEACHMENT. If he does appear in person or by attorney, his appearance is recorded."

There have been, in all, four cases of impeachment since the beginning of our government, namely, that of William Blount, 1799; John Pickering, 1803; Samuel Chase, 1805, and Jas. H. Peck, 1831. The law governing such trials, as stated by Judge Story, is founded on the precedents furnished by these four cases. The argument of General Butler, in support of the position of Wendell Phillips, that the President must necessarily be suspended from office during the trial, falls to the ground in the face of this uniform usage. But, even if the exploded assumption of Butler were correct, the taking of the President into temporary custody would not operate as a suspension from office. If he should be totally disabled for six weeks by typhus fever, we suppose no body is absurd enough to say that he would cease to be President during his illness, and that the President of the Senate would be inducted into the executive chair. The government would, in that case, be administered by the heads of departments, and papers requiring the President's name would remain unsigned until his recovery. That his office could not be filled by another person during his transient disability may be shown by a conclusive analogy. Suppose Chief Justice Chase should be impeached, would his office be vacant during the trial? If so, the President could send to the Senate a nomination to fill the vacancy. The idea of his doing so is utterly preposterous. The office can be vacated only after a conviction, and in consequence of a sentence. To make the office vacant is the only penalty which the Constitution allows against an officer impeached; and it is absurd to suppose the punishment can date from the accusation instead of from the judgement.

If we were to hazard a conjecture as to the course of the President, in case he should be impeached, it would be that he will object to the competency of the court and refuse to appear.—If, when the law gives a man the benefit of twelve jurymen, an iniquitous court should attempt to try him before seven, he would refuse to plead. The Constitution gives an impeached officer the right to be tried by seventy-two Senators, and requires two-thirds of the members to convict. If the Radicals attempt to try the President by fifty-two, he has a right to deny the jurisdiction of a court of impeachment so composed.

A Washington Dispatch to the Philadelphia Ledger says: "General Howard has ordered the rents that have accrued upon the property of Joseph E. Davis, brother of Jefferson Davis, to be paid to him from and since the date of his pardon papers, which were issued on the 28th of March last, but not forwarded to him until early in September. The value of these rents is not far from $20,000 per annum; so that, in effect, Mr. Davis receives probably as full, or nearly as full an equivalent, as if the property itself had been fully restored to him. The question of the restoration of this property has been before Gen. Howard for some time, but he prefers that another, and not himself, shall order its restitution. I am told that the property of Jefferson Davis is also included in the amount held or claimed by his brother, one title covering the whole."

The second snow storm of the season commenced this morning about daylight. Don't know when it will stop. Judging from present indications, the clerk of the weather has lost the stopper. It would seem strange to our friends in America, after being blessed (?) with two or three snow storms at this time of the year, to see green corn, tomatoes, green peas, etc., for sale at stores and on the streets, and last but least, we to-day saw a gentle youth, over whose precious head scarce a dozen summers have gently passed, seated in quiet and conscious dignity—on the ground, eating a "chunk" of water-melon, undisturbed by snow, cholera or any other man.—Such is life—in Colorado.—Black Hawk (Colorado) Mining Journal, Sept. 19.

A WONDERFUL CASE.—The Dead Alive.—Night before last a child of William Wells, residing in the town of Bethlehem, a short distance from the city, died rather suddenly, as the family supposed, from an attack of diarrhea. To all appearances the child was dead, and it was actually laid in the coffin. The coffin, containing the body, was placed in the front room, after having been thus arranged, and the family retired. The funeral was to take place October 3. During the night Mr. Wells heard a noise in the front room, and supposed it was the cat or dog had got in there. He went in to drive it out. Imagine his surprise to find the body of the child turned in the coffin. He raised it up, and the little thing opened its eyes, looked up, and commenced crying. The physician was sent for, and the whole neighborhood was soon aroused. Nourishments were administered, and the child yesterday was doing well. Singular to relate, it has not had any diarrhea since, and there is every prospect of its living. This is, indeed, a singular case, and confounds everybody interested in it.—Albany Knickerbocker.

REMORSE OF A DUELIST.—A Memphis correspondent writing on the 6th. says:

Captain Alonzo Greenlaw, who killed young Taylor in a recent duel, attempted to commit suicide this morning by shooting himself in the breast. The ball struck a rib and glanced around, lodging in the back, and inflicting a severe, though not fatal, wound. Remorse, he says, is the cause.

There is a story of an illiterate Western lawyer who asserted vehemently that all the actions of his client had been "sub rosa and above board."

Dan Castello's Great Show, is pleased to be enabled to present an Array of Artistic names, comprising the very best Talent in the world.

DAN CASTELLO,
THE ORIGINAL CONVERSATIONALIST,

Will appear at each entertainment and introduce the only Thoroughly Trained Horse in the Universe,

THE RUSSIAN HORSE CZAR.

CIRCASSIAN STEED.

The creature with the Flowing Mane and Sweeping Tail, styled the "Animal with Soul," the paragon of Beauty, Docility and Intelligence.

In fact, a finer and better show than has ever been organized. Elegance, Refinement and Attractiveness are the distinguishing features of DAN CASTELLO'S GREAT SHOW.

Burnell Runnells.

THE EMBODIMENT OF

grace and style, will, with his two pretty and gifted boys, render a pleasing series of living pictures, which, for ease, excellence and elegance, have never before been witnessed in America. This young Southerner and his two little children constitute the leading attractions in the principal theatres, hippodromes and circuses of the Old World.

Papers praised them! Journalists endorsed them. People pronounce them great.

BETTER RIDERS, GREATER EQUESTRIENNES, BOLDER GYMNASTS, MORE DARING ACROBATS, SMALLER PONIES, FINER HORSES, FUNNIER MULES, MORE ORIGINAL CLOWNS,

Mr. E. Holloway, the Lightning Leaper; Messrs. Hannon and Powers, the Daring Calisthenic Artists; Mr. T. Watson, who bids fair to win the title of Champion Rider of the World; Le Jeune Burt, the Wild Horseman of the Plains; Mr. Robert Johnson, Scenic Equestrian; Mr. J. Saunders, Leaping and Vaulting Rider; Mr. W. Lerman, a very expert Somersaulter; Mr. Thomas Burgess, a quaint and old-fashioned Clown; Mr. Horace P. Nichols, the most affable of Ring Masters, and others of Versatile Abilities, that must in time win them fame and promotion.

The Batoutte Leaps,

Are specialities to the Great Show, and are given in a style unattempted by cotemporary concerns. During the execution of those exercises,

DAN CASTELLO WILL LITERALLY FLY OVER A HERD OF HORSES.

HERR LENGEL, THE LION KING, WILL ENTER THE DEN OF THE FEROCIOUS WILD BEASTS,

And give an entertainment that, for intrepidity and daring, far surpasses the triumph archieved by the late I. A. Van Amburg.

WILL EXHIBIT AT THE FOLLOWING PLACES;

GOLDSBORO', Wednesday Oct. 17th.
WILMINGTON, Thursday, Friday and Saturday, Oct. 18th, 19th and 20.
GREENSBORO, Tuesday 23.

THE SENTINEL.

Saturday Evening, Oct. 13, 1866.

CITY AND STATE ITEMS.

NEW ADVERTISEMENTS.—Allan and Johnson, Seedsmen, Nurserymen and Florists, 1506 Main St., Richmond, Va.

J. Brown (with Hart and Lewis) announces new openings.

All articles for the Fair, to be held at Henderson on the 17th., 18th and 19th instant, will be carried over the R. & G. Railroad at half rates, and return tickets will be sold for one fare.

CLAWSON.—In connection with his general business of House and Sign painting, of which he is perfect master, Clawson is prepared to do upholstering and paper-hanging in the most superior style. He understands the art of making old as good as new. If any doubt this, let them step into Mahler's, whose establishment we noticed on yesterday, and be convinced. We are glad that so competent a person as Mr. Clawson has undertaken this business. It has been, of late years, a great want in this community.

Speaking of Mahler's, we inadvertently omitted, in our notice of yesterday, to give Mr. Thos. Coates, architect, credit for the excellent design and carpentering. The painting, papering, &c. was the work of Mr. Clawson. He can confidently point to it as his "reference."

HIS EXCELLENCY Gov. Worth left this city for Wilmington last evening,—having received intelligence of the illness of Mrs. Worth, who is in that city.

DIED.—Dr. A. A. Chase, Surgeon in Charge of Freedmen, and an officer of the Bureau, died in this City on yesterday. His remains will be sent North for interment.

THE SOUTHERN EXPRESS Co. have our renewed thanks for Savannah, Augusta and Montgomery papers in advance of the mails.

DECLINES.—We learn that Mr. G. H. Alford, one of the Standard candidates for the House of Commons in this county, has withdrawn from the canvass.

ARRIVALS AT THE YARBORO HOUSE, OCT. 12th.—C. R. Pearce, P. A. Wiley, Jno. W. Hinsdale, R. McDaniel, Mrs. G. A. Thompson, Fayetteville; W. W. Jones, Henderson, Capt. Jno. Eudy, Greensboro, C. W. Cooke, Rhode Island, T. D. Crawford, Washington, P. M. Amos, Madison.

THE EYE AND EAR.—We refer our readers to the advertisement of Dr. Gardner, Oculist and Aurist, (formerly of London,) now of New York, who will be at the Yarborough Hotel, on Saturday, Nov. 24th., and remain until Thursday, the 29th. After that time, he will visit Raleigh monthly, of which due notice will be given. The Dr. comes highly recommended by the press of the different cities he has visited. Those who require medical or surgical aid for defective sight or hearing, should avail themselves of the opportunity now offered for obtaining relief, by consulting Dr. Gardner.

THE WHEAT CROP.—We hope that our planters throughout the entire wheat region are making the most extensive arrangements possible to seed a large crop of wheat. The wheat lands of North Carolina yield more in that cereal, in proportion to the cost of cultivation, than any thing else. Less labor is required than with any other product, and it matures at a period when it is much needed to relieve the scarcity of bread.

We believe it is now generally conceded, that North Carolina wheat, raised upon our lands best adapted to it, is not inferior to any in the world. It always commands the best prices in the New York markets. Let our planters, therefore, seed largely, putting the crop in thoroughly and adding to the soil such an amount of fertilizers as they can possibly command.

ROCK ISLAND MANUFACTURING CO.—Our excellent correspondent, "Itinerant," gives an interesting account of this great North Carolina enterprise in Charlotte. He also sends us some samples of cloths and cassimeres, manufactured by the Company, which we do not hesitate to pronounce superior fabrics to any of the imported articles. Any of our city merchants, desiring to see them, are invited to call at the Sentinel office. "Encourage home enterprise." Never was this more our duty than at present. In the practice of it lies the surest road to recuperation.

A HORRFUL PICTURE.—The Wilmington Journal takes the following encouraging view of what Raleigh may become, by a judicious and liberal investment in manufacturing industry. The picture is not overdrawn, in our opinion:

"We were informed, during a recent visit to Raleigh, that Messrs. Willard, Pulliam, Jones and others are expected to erect in Raleigh a factory for the manufacture of a fine article of cotton-woolen goods, in connection with their factory for spinning of yarns already in successful operation in Orange county. Raleigh is well situated for the location of factories. The climate is healthy, labor cheap, transportation abundant, and water-power ample and convenient for the purpose of spinning the yarns required in the manufacture of finer goods. A judicious use of capital in erecting manufactories in that neighborhood would not only be profitable to the stockholders, but would convert that beautiful little city of six thousand inhabitants, now nestling amid the shade of its gigantic oaks in listless and indolent ease, dependent, in a great measure, upon the necessary drain of the State Treasury for a meagre support, into a busy, bustling, thriving manufacturing city of 40,000 or 50,000 inhabitants."

HAIL STORM.—We learn that the Southern part of this county was visited with a terrific hail storm on yesterday, doing much damage to the cotton and tobacco crops. Much of the hail was as large as a hen's egg, and in some places where it had drifted together it was three or four inches deep. The strip of country through which it passed was quite narrow.—Salisbury State.

General News.

OFFICIAL TOMFOOLERY.—VERY SENTIMENTAL.—The Herald's Washington letter of Monday says:

Captain Dick Meade, of the navy, had a warm interview with Secretary Stanton to-day. The Secretary has ordered the Rebel archives to be placed in Captain Meade's house, instead of Ford's theatre, which was purchased for that purpose, on the ground that it would be disrespectful to the memory of Abraham Lincoln, who was killed there, to place these Rebel memorials in that building. Captain Meade claims that such use of the house of his late mother is objectionable on the same ground, and he demands that the government shall take the house off his hands.

BOSTON, Oct. 9.—Maria Cavanaugh and Hannah McLoughlin, girls of twenty years of age, jumped from Craigie's Bridge, early this morning, locked in each other's arms. They were taken from the water by some boatmen, Maria Cavanaugh dead, and Hannah McLoughlin surviving.

Gen. Frank Blair attempted to address a meeting at Cape Girardeau, Missouri, on Saturday evening, but was driven from the stand with stones and followed to the hotel with hooting. The windows on the side where Gen. Blair was known to be were all broken.

The marriage of Levi Bamberger and Miss Sarah Rosenthal in the Jewish Synagogue at Louisville, Ky., was performed with such a blaze of pomp and circumstance, that the Journal gives a column in describing the gorgeous scene.

A little orphan boy, who has recently supported himself by blacking boots in Little Rock, Arkansas, has become the possessor of a fortune of one hundred and twenty thousand dollars, by the death of a wealthy relative in Louisiana.

The South is not dupe and fool enough to accept the conditions the Radicals offer. Even if everything which the Radicals offer to-day were accepted, they would have something worse to offer to-morrow. They can multiply conditions twice as fast as the South could accept them, though she were to devote herself exclusively to the business of accepting.—Louisville Journal.

They have an entertainment in Dieppe called "Lucifer in the jaws of Hell." A side show is exhibiting in this country.

Yankee notions will do more for the prosperity of the South than Yankee politics.

"I have nothing but my heart to give you," said a spinster to a lawyer, who had conducted a suit for her. "Well," said the lawyer, gruffly, "go to my clerk—he takes the fees."

Female book-keepers are very popular in the large cities just now. They are careful correspondents, and don't spend "till" money playing billiards, drinking or driving fast horses.

The New York Times, we are sorry to see, has slipped out of the noble palace of Conservatism into the negro hovel of Radicalism.—Prentice.

At a large Radical meeting in New York the celebrated Dr. Bellows made an incendiary speech. It is the function of a bellows to kindle a fire with wind.—Prentice.

The soldiers say that when a bullet strikes, the sound is "thud." When the Jacobin faction strikes, the sound is generally Thad.—Prentice.

The Petersburg Republican says that Bennett of the Herald "never acted from principle." Oh, yes, he has always acted from it—a thousand miles from it at least.—Prentice.

Hon. C. C. Clay, of Alabama, is in Washington City.

Grant and Beauregard exchanged salutations in Central Park.

Kossuth, old and worn, is a dependent upon the world's charity.

The Colored Tennessean, lately published in Nashville, is dead.

Emigration from the South.

We have seen with regret the fact that some five hundred white people of North Carolina are now on their way, in one body, as emigrants to the Northwest. We are sorry to see the South thus losing its population, when there are such immense capabilities there needing development. Why is this exodus of the white population of the Southern States? Not knowing the particular circumstances of the movement of this body of people, we cannot speak with certainty about it. But we very much fear that the violent course of the Radical party towards the South is creating a general feeling of apprehension very antagonistic to material prosperity.

The extravagant threats and the malignant spirit evinced by some of the leading Radicals are well calculated to alarm the South. The people there are afraid of an annulment of the pardons granted by the President and a general confiscation of property. Besides all this, the Southern people cannot but see that they are to be subjected to a perpetual agitation about negro equality. They see that the Radicals will never stop this side of universal suffrage; and where the negroes are in such vast numbers as in the Southern States, this is by no means an agreeable future.

It is not long since the people of Connecticut refused at the polls to establish general negro suffrage. If they, with abolition and negro equality beat into their heads with fists ecclesiastic for the last thirty years, and with only a handful of negroes to get the benefit of voting, cannot stomach negro equlity at the polls, is it strange that the people of the South look upon it with absolute horror? They have not had the advantage of a long schooling in this direction, and besides the negro element with them is immense."

How much to be regretted it is that the Christian people cannot make just allowances for the Southern people in reference to the tender subject of negro equality. But we do not expect rational consideration from the Radical party. Such is its fanaticism and its unhappy prejudice against our erring brothers of the Anglo-Saxon race at the South, that if the power of the Federal Government is permanently maintained in their hands, we have the most melancholy forebodings as to the future of the South. These men can destroy, but they cannot build up. Like their prototypes of the mountain in the French National Assembly, it is only necessary for them to have the opportunity to prove themselves the greatest architects of ruin the world has ever seen.—Nat. Intel.

SUPERIOR COURT.—The Fall Term of this tribunal is in session here this week, His Honor, Judge Merrimon presiding. Docket is a large one, it being the first Term of this Court held here for four years. Though this is the case, we learn that the Judge says it is the smallest Docket of any Court over which he has presided. This speaks well for our community. Our Bar is well represented, with able and distinguished gentlemen, members of the Bar from other Counties. We notice Messrs. Gov. Bragg, B. F. Moore, W. K. Barham, and the Attorney General, S. H. Rogers, of Wake, Messrs Edwards and Hayes, of Granville, Messrs Batchelor and Jenkins, of Warren, and others.—Louisburg Eagle.

How much suffering comes from Diseased Livers?—Let parents read the following, and remember that these Pills are safe for the most delicate ladies:

Wm. Carraway, Esq., Wayne Co., N. C. (Sept. 1, 1862, says: "I have used the Southern Hepatic Pills in my family. My daughter was in very bad health from disorder of the liver for the space of three years, hardly having had a week without suffering. She took the Pills regularly and strictly according to the directions on the wrapper, and her health has been entirely restored by them. I have used them with great benefit among my servants on the plantation, and can recommend them as a safe and useful family medicine."

A New and Grand Epoch in Medicine!

DR. MAGGIEL is the founder of a new Medical System! The quantitarians, whose vast internal doses onfeeble the stomach and paraiyze the bowels, must give precedence to the man who restores health and appetite, with from one to two of his extraordinary Pills, and cures the most virulent sores with a box or so of his wonderful and all healing Salve. These two great specifics of the Doctor are fast superseding all the stereotyped nostrums of the day. Extraordinary cures by Maggiel's Pills and Salve have opened the eyes of the public to the inefficiency of the (so-called) remedies of others, and upon which people have so long blindly depended. Maggil's Pills are not of the class that are swallowed by the dozen, and of which every box full taken creates an absolute necessity for another. One or two of Maggiel's Pills suffices to place the bowels in perfect order, tone the stomach, create an appetite, and render the spirits light and buoyant! There is no griping, and no reaction in the form of constipation. If the liver is affected, its functions are restored; and if the nervous system is feeble, it is invigorated. This last quality makes the medicines very desirable for the wants of delicate females. Ulcerous and eruptive diseases are literally extinguished by the disinfectant power of Maggiel's Salve. In fact, it is announced that Maggiel's Billious, Dyspeptic and Diarrhoea Pills cure where all others fail. While for Burns, Scalds, Chilblains, Cuts and all abrasions of the skin, Maggiel's Salve is infallible. Sold by J. MAGGIEL, 11 Pine St., New York, and all Druggists, at 25 cts. per box.

OPINIONS OF THE PRESS.

The Louisville Journal says: "The testimonials which Dr. Gardner presents to the public could never have been obtained, except by the display of great skill and learning in his profession. One thing especially commendable in the Doctor's practice is, that he will not attempt an incurable disease for the sake of a fee, but frankly tells the patient whether he can be cured or not. We cheerfully recommend Dr. Gardner to the attention of all our friends who may be suffering from diseases of the eye or ear.

The Richmond Times says: We have no hesitation in saying that Dr. Gardner is the most scientific and successful eye and ear Surgeon in this country.

"We feel justified in recommending Doctor Gardner to those suffering from diseases of the eye and ear."—Richmond Whig.

"We can safely and cordially recommend Dr. Gardner, who will fulfill all he undertakes to perform."—Baltimore Clipper.

The New Orleans True Delta says: "We can safely recommend Dr. Gardner as a successful operator on the eye and ear. He will not undertake to treat a case unless a cure can be effected.

The Wheeling Register says: "Dr. Gardner is one of the most successful Oculists and Aurists in the country. We advise those suffering from the diseases of the eye and ear to consult him."

AYER'S CHERRY PECTORAL,

FOR THE RAPID CURE OF

Coughs, Colds, Influenza, Hoarseness, Croup, Bronchitis, Incipient Consumption, and for the relief of Consumptive Patients in advanced stages of the disease.

So wide is the field of its usefulness and so numerous are the cases of its cures, that almost every section of country abounds in persons publicly known, who have been restored from alarming and even desperate diseases of the lungs by its use. When once tried, its superiority over every other expectorant is too patent to escape observation, and where its virtues are known, the public no longer hesitate what antidote to employ for the distressing and dangerous affections of the pulmonary organs that are incident to our climate. While many inferior remedies thrust upon the community have failed and been discarded, this has gained friends by every trial, conferred benefits on the afflicted they can never forget, and produced cures too numerous and too remarkable to be forgotten.

We can only assure the public, that its quality is carefully kept up to the best it ever has been, and that it may be relied on to do for their relief all that it has ever done.

Great numbers of Clergymen, Physicians, Statesmen, and eminent personages, have lent their names to certify the unparalleled usefulness of our remedies, but space here will not permit the insertion of them. The Agents below named furnish gratis our American Almanac in which they are given; with also full descriptions of the complaints they cure.

Those who require an alterative medicine to purify the blood will find AYER'S COMP. EXT. SARSAPARILLA the remedy to use. Try it once, and you will know its value.

SOMETHING NEW

UNDER THE SUN.

A New Era In Medicine!

☞ Let the Suffering and Diseased read the following.

☞ Let all who have been given up by Doctors, and spoken of as incurable, read the following.

☞ Let all who can believe facts and can have faith in evidence, read the following:

Know all men by these presents, That on this, the Twentieth day of June, in the year of our Lord, One Thousand Eight Hundred and Sixty-Six, personally came Joseph Haydock to me, known as such, and being duly sworn, deposed as follows: That he is the sole general agent for the United States, and dependencies thereof, for preparations or medicines known as MAGGIEL'S PILLS and SALVE, and that the following certificates are verbatim copies to the best of his knowledge and belief.

JAMES SMEITER,
L. S. Notary Public,
Wall Street, New York.

June 1, 1866.

DR. MAGGIEL:—I take my pen to write you of my great relief and that the awful pain in my side has left me at last—thanks to your medicine. Oh, doctor, how thankful I am that I can get some sleep. I can never write it enough. I thank you again and again, and am sure that you are really the friend of all sufferers. I could not help writing to you, and hope you will not take it amiss.

JAMES MYERS,
116 Avenue D.

This is to certify that I was discharged from the army with Chronic Diarrhœa, and have been cured by Dr. Maggiel's Pills.

WILSON HARVEY,
New York, April 7, 1865. 27 Pitt Street.

The following is an interesting case of a man employed in an Iron Foundry, who, in pouring melted iron into a flask that was damp and wet, caused an explosion. The melted iron was thrown around and on him in a perfect shower, and he was burnt dreadfully. The following certificate was given to me by him about eight weeks after the accident.

New York, Jan. 11, 1866.

My name is Jacob Hardy; I am an Iron Founder; I was badly burnt by hot iron in November last; my burns healed, but I had a running sore on my leg that would not heal; I tried Maggiel's Salve, and it cured me in a few weeks. This is all true, and any body can now see me at Jackson's Iron Works, 2nd Avenue.

J. HARDY,
119 Geerick Street.

Extract from Various Letters:

"I had no appetite; Maggiel's Pills gave me a hearty one."

"Your Pills are marvelous."

"I send for another box, and keep them in the house."

"Dr. Maggiel has cured my headache that was chronic."

"I gave half of one of your pills to my babe for cholera morbus. The dear little thing got well in a day."

"My nausea of a morning is now cured."

"Your box of Maggiel's Salve cured me of noises in the head. I rubbed some of your Salve behind my ears and the noise left."

"Send me two boxes; I want one for a poor family."

"I enclose a dollar; your price is twenty-five cents, but the medicine to me is worth a dollar."

"Send me five boxes of your pills."

"Let me have three boxes of your Salve by return mail."

I have over 200 such Testimonals

As this, but want of space compels me to conclude

EXECUTOR'S SALE OF

DESIRABLE DWELLING, NICE TOWN

LOTS, AND A TRACT OF LAND

Near Warrenton, N.C.

As executor of Dr. Hugh J. Davis, to effect a division among his legatees, I shall sell to the highest bidder, on the 15th day of November, 1866, at his late residence, in the town of Warrenton, N. C., the DWELLING HOUSE and LOT. Also a Lot in front of Dwelling, and a Lot adjoining the Court-House square; and a tract of Land about two miles distant from Warrenton.

The Dwelling is in cottage style, containing ten rooms, and has two basements. Near the centre of the town, surrounded by magnificent oaks, it is in one of the handsomest locations in Warrenton, on a lot of about four and a half acres, having an ample yard and garden well inclosed, with Stables, Kitchen, Smoke House, Dairy, Carriage House, Corn Crib, Servants' House, two good Offices in the yard, a well of excellent water, and is bounded by four streets. This square is sufficiently large, and so arranged as to be divided into two beautiful Building Lots, fronting towards the main part of the town. The Lot in front of the Dwelling is enclosed, contains over an acre, without any building, and is bounded by three streets.

The lot in rear of the Court-House fronts on the street about one hundred and ninety-two (192) feet, and contains about three-fourths of an acre. This lot has a Store, with several rooms, at the north corner, a residence in the centre, with several rooms, and an office with two rooms at the south end.

The tract of Land contains two hundred and eleven acres, in original growth partly, but mostly in second growth pine, and is situated on both sides of the main road to Clark's Bridge. Being so near Warrenton by a good road, this tract is valuable for its fire wood, having been reserved for this purpose, but would make a nice farm.

Possession of Dwelling and Lots given on first of January, 1867, and the tract of Land given up at sale.

TERMS—On the Dwelling, five hundred dollars cash, and on that and the rest of the property a credit of twelve months, from day of possession. Bonds, with satisfactory security, required and title withheld until payment. Inquiries answered.

Ex'r Dr. H. J. Davis.

THE NATIONAL UNION BUSINESS COLLEGE

WASHINGTON. D. C,

Offers superior advantages for a thorough Business Education.

The course of instruction embraces Commission, Importing, Jobbing, Retailing, Bank and other Bookkeeping, Commercial Law, Arithmetic, Correspondence, Spencerian Penmanship and Business Practice.

PENMANSHIP is taught by Henry C. Spencer, the leading author of this system, and celebrated as the Editor of the "Spencerian Key to Practical Penmanship," adopted by nearly all first class Colleges as the standard of criticism. Unusual facilities are here presented for acquiring this valuable art.

The system of "BUSINESS PRACTICE," originated and successfully taught by the Proprietor, receives his special attention. This is the most valuable part of the course. Here the student applies his theoretical knowledge. He buys and sells representative mdse, makes out notes, drafts, invoices, &c., deposits College money in the Collegeo Bank, and checks it out as his business requires. Becoming, in turn, Retailer, Wholesale, Forwarder, Banker, he soon acquires a knowledge of business forms, learns to compose and condense the history of every transaction and thinks for himself. He is thus prepared for actual business.

Full scholarship, good for review at any time, with Life Membership in this Union of Colleges extending to the principal cities, only $45. Books and stationery extra.

For circulars giving full information, for specimens of Penmanship, of the College currency and merchandise.

JAS. L. HATHAWAY AND UTLEY

(Formerly HATHAWAY & Co., Importers of MOLASSES and SUGAR, Wilmington, N. C.)

Shipping and Commission Merchants,

171 PEARL STREET, NEW YORK.

We solicit consignments of Cotton, Naval Stores, Sheetings, Yarns, Tobacco, and other Southern Products, to the sale of which our prompt personal attention will be given. We will make liberal advances upon receipt of Invoice and Bill of Lading. All Merchandise and Produce shipped to us for sale are insured from point of shipment, with or without advice. Invoices should always accompany each shipment.

Both of us having had over twenty years' experience in business in the South, and our J. L. HATHAWAY three years in New York, we feel confident we can secure full prices for our friends who will favor us with their consignments.

1866. FALL TRADE 1866.

M'ILWAINE & CO.,

WHOLESALE DEALERS IN STAPLE & FANCY DRY GOODS.

No. 79 Sycamore Street,

Petersburg, Virginia,

TAKE PLEASURE IN INFORMING THEIR friends and the trade generally that the steady increase of their business has rendered it necessary for them to add two rooms to their Dry Goods Department, together with a large and convenient entrance from Tabb street, which arrangement gives them a most spacious Sales-room, well lighted, and enables them by this increased accommodation to add largely to their Fall Supply.

They beg leave to invite particular attention to their extensive assortment of

made to order under the supervision of Mr. A. S. SHAFER, whose long experience in this department of business, in this city, has made him familiar with the wants of Merchants in Virginia and North Carolina. Anticipating a heavy Trade this Fall, their stock will be found unusually large, embracing a general assortment of

American and Foreign

STAPLE AND FANCY DRY GOODS,

together with a full line of

which having been purchased for cash, they have no hesitation in saying to the Trade, that they are prepared to offer such inducements as will insure satisfaction.

Capt. EDWARD GRAHAM and Mr. JOHN McNEECE have charge of this Department, and will be pleased to exhibit our stock to buyers visiting this market.
